Respected sir,

Warm greetings from Heuristic Technopark

Thank you for the opportunity,

Here are the brief details about us...

Warm Greetings !!

We would like to introduce our organization 'Heuristic Technopark' which is also ISO (ISO 9001:2015) certified. that has been in training, academics, and software development for the last 10 years.

We have been an established and popular organization with an excellent track record for quality training and student placement. We have never compromised on the quality and the knowledge provided to students. We believe in giving industrial and practical knowledge to students and making them industry ready. We have excellent faculties who have more than 10 years of experience in the industry and who give their knowledge to students to provide them with industry approaches.

Please feel free to keep in touch with us about any tie-up, training programs, courses, and placement queries/requirements. Please note that we also provide training on your premise for good student strength.

Please find the attached files as follows:
